Arrest of two juveniles clears seven burglaries

Two 16-year-old boys, arrested at 8 a.m. Sunday in the rectory of Sacred Heart Church, 2606 Washington Ave., have admitted to seven Granite City break-ins, including three at schools and two at church buildings, police said this morning.

Officers first were called to the rectory by the Reverend James Hill and the Rev. James Newman, who said they were holding a Granite City boy found in the second-floor hallway. Rev. Newman said he was awakened by noise and confronted the boy, who had no excuse for being in the rectory.

The boy told the priests he was alone, but when police were taking him out of the rectory officers inquired if another boy escaped and the boy allegedly said, "No, he's still upstairs."

Officers searched the second floor and found an East St. Louis boy hidden in a guest bedroom.

Upon questioning, the boys allegedly admitted seven break-ins, including Sunday at Niedringhaus School, 29th and State streets.

Also cleared were Dec. 14 break-ins at Lake and Webster schools, a Dec. 2 break-in at Bethel Chapel, 25th and August streets, a Dec. 4 burglary at the home of Harry Hendricks, 2311 E. 25th St., and a Nov. 16 break-in at the Dairy Bar, 28th Street and Nameoki Road.

At Sacred Heart, entry was gained by breaking glass in a south basement window and the building was searched. Keys to the school were taken from the office and were believed used to gain entry to the church.

Several offices and rooms in the church, school, rectory and convent were broken into and searched. The Granite City Youth allegedly had the church key and some change in his possession when searched by officers.

At Niedringhaus School, entry was gained by taking the caulking from around a north window and removing the glass. All desks in the downstairs classrooms were searched and the classrooms were ransacked. A wooden window near the dishwasher in the kitchen was forced open and a door to the storage room in the kitchen was torn from the wall.

Christmas cookies were taken from the storage room and two boxes of ice cream bars were taken from a freezer and left out to melt.

Two windows were broken to gain entry to the learning center and several doors were pried open to gain entry to main floor classrooms.

The principal's office sustained extensive damage and a cabinet was pried open with an undetermined amount of money taken.

In the nurse's office, a cabinet was pried open and a desk was ransacked. School officials today were preparing a list of missing items.

Homer Davis, 54, succumbs

Homer Davis, 1901 Third St., Madison, a local resident for the past three years, was pronounced dead upon arrival at St. Elizabeth Hospital at 6:55 p.m. Saturday.

Mr. Davis, 54, had been in ill health for some time. He was a native of Lake City, Ark., and lived in St. Louis prior to moving to Madison.

A welder by trade, Mr. Davis was employed for 20 years at Harvard Industries, Inc., St. Louis, formerly Chromcraft Co.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Emma Marie Davis; one son, Jimmy Davis, serving with the U.S. Army at Key West, Fla.; two brothers, Raymond Davis of Lake City, Ark., and Bullie Davis of Little Rock, Ark.; and one grandchild.

Visitation is here Monday evening. Other details are given in today's obituary column.

The board will meet at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday in the Madison County Courthouse at Edwardsville.

More arrests

Other items in Maryland Heights. The value of the items found may exceed one-half million dollars, the FBI said. All the items were believed taken in burglaries in Mississippi, some within the last two weeks, agents said.

The arrests were the second in two days in connection with an investigation into a St. Louis-based burglary ring. Four Missouri residents were arrested Wednesday in connection with the recovery of about $170,000 worth of Tiffany lamp shades and glassware taken from a Wisconsin home in October, 1975, and about $200,000 worth of Jade statues and antiques taken from a St. Louis residence during December, 1974.

Sought in connection with these cases are Joseph Charles Crimi of Snowbird Lane in Granite City and Owens.

The arrests and current searches for Crimi and Owens are the result of federal grand jury indictments returned after a two-year investigation utilizing the FBI, the St. Louis Police Department's Intelligence Division, the United States attorney's office, the U.S. Department of Justice Organized Crime Strike Force and other organizations, according to Harlan C. Phillips, special agent in charge of the FBI at St. Louis.

Raykowski and Polite appeared Friday before U.S. Magistrate William S. Bahn and bond was set at $500,000 each.

decision-making process.

As outlined at the meeting here, the revised land use approach stresses that "public services constitute a vital factor in the development of a community or county, since the character and location of water and sewage facilities often act as a prime determinant in the ultimate use of land."

While the provision of such public services is becoming increasingly more expensive, the public's ability to afford such services must be provided in a systematic manner in relation to the growth policies and projected population of the county.

Problems related to the provision of public services are especially critical in the fringes of developing areas where improper or unsafe usage of individual wells or waste disposal systems often occurs.

"Systematic planning is necessary in these critical areas, which often fall under the jurisdiction of county government. Madison County's effort at planning for public services is guided by the goal:

"To provide public utilities and urban services at a level which will guide and promote cost effective, compact urban development adjacent to existing urban centers within the county."

The land use proposal relates that "problems related to public services and facilities have been reviewed in accord with the goal which promotes compact urban development."

"The resultant area of concern calls for provision of utility systems for developed, unserved high-density areas."

"Although public services and facilities are not considered a traditional land use activity, they nevertheless incur an immeasurable impact on the pattern of land use."

"The policies are intended to serve as guidelines, for provision of public services and facilities throughout the county."

"Public services typically encompass water and sewerage facilities, refuse disposal, police and fire protection and cultural and educational facilities."

"In most instances, the provision of such services is the responsibility of the government, and is dependent that unit of government's financial ability and desire to provide the services."

"Water and sewerage services, which are typically taken for granted, are two of the primary local government responsibilities for urban development. In most cases, water service is initially provided, while sewerage service is supplied much later, if at all."

This lag in service is usually a matter of economics, with the cost of sewerage facilities becoming increasingly prohibitive to local government."

"The provision of necessary public services and facilities should follow a systematic plan which is timed and coordinated with the growth trends, interests and financial ability of the local government."

"In order to achieve maximum efficiency, local governments should first consider addressing developed, high-density areas."

"The development of public services and facilities plan statements for Madison County is directed by the objective—to promote the immediate and economic construction of public service systems in the urbanized but unserved portions of the County."

"The county encourages the cost-effective provision of public services and facilities at a level consistent with sound local planning and the projected year 2000 population."

"Construction of proposed water and sewer systems should utilize cost effectiveness to determine priorities that will permit the consolidation of future systems by drainage basin and water distribution system."

"Sewage treatment facilities should conform to all applicable federal and state water quality standards."

"Adequate subsurface and street surface drainage systems are encouraged to assure protection from nuisances, health hazards, and damage to property."

"The use of septic tanks should be discouraged in order to abate the pollution of ground water."

"The county encourages cooperative ventures in the planning, development, and management of water and sewer systems."

"Consolidation of existing and proposed water and sewer facilities is promoted in order to maximize efficiency, economy and environmental quality."

"The county also encourages the provision of adequate refuse disposal through the appropriate location of sanitary landfills, or other acceptable disposal methods as determined by feasibility studies."

sufficient funds to build."

"After the town board approved the final plans on Nov. 16, 1976, the town clerk was instructed to advertise for bids. "On Dec. 21, 1976 the low bid of $69,940 was awarded to the S. M. Wilson Co. of Granite City and on March 1, 1977, the groundbreaking took place," the mayor concluded.

Also speaking was Thomas Minsky, president of the Granite City School Board, and Edgar Padock, president of the Granite City Township Senior Citizens Council.

The Rev. Robert E. O'Hara, pastor of St. Joseph's Catholic Church, gave the invocation and the Rev. Dennis Rutledge, president of the Quad-Cities Ministerial Association and pastor of Central Christian Church, gave the benediction.

Presentation of the colors was handled by representatives of Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 1300, American Legion Post 113, Amvets Post 51 and the Disabled American Veterans.

Entertainment was provided by the Granite City High School North Flag and Rifle Squad, the Steel City Belles Pom Pom Squad and the North band under the direction of Robert D. Tompkins.

Tours of the building followed, and refreshments were served following the program.

Large auditorium occupies the area of the building next to 21st Street, extending to the southwest along Delmar Avenue.

The township supervisor and general assistance offices are at the western corner on Delmar near the middle of the 2000 block while Quad-City regional education region offices occupy the southern corner.

Campaign

Parents will select toys for their children at Santa's Toy Shop Wednesday, and a valentine party for youngsters is scheduled at corps headquarters Thursday, Capt. Tompkins said.

Two GC homes burglarized

Two homes in the 1700 blocks of Pontoon Road and Moro Avenue were broken into during the weekend, but nothing was believed taken from either.

Vivian Wolfe, 1717 Pontoon Road, discovered at 5:05 p.m. Sunday that a northwest basement window of her home had been opened and a trail of mud went from the window through the basement and up the stairs. A door to the living area was blocked and the burglar was unable to open it. The nearby home of Valerie Evenden was entered by removing the window from the front door and placing the broken glass on a chair in the living room. Nothing was believed disturbed or taken.

STORE BURGLARIZED
Sometime between 10:45 p.m. Friday and 2:45 a.m. Saturday, City Furniture, 1707 Madison Ave., was burglarized. The cash register was pried open and $182 taken, along with a calculator valued at $30.

historical sites in the region. The directional and bidirectional terms refer only to routing of railroad traffic; both operational strategies would require the same physical facilities.

One of the major railroad corridors in the St. Louis Gateway, the Q Tower corridor, runs directly through Granite City.

The combined traffic of Conrail, MP (M), NW, ICG and ITC is currently 51 movements a day but would be reduced to 46 under the three-yard plan and 50 under the two-yard plan.

Proceeding northeast from WR Tower, these tracks sever seven streets in Granite City. By analyzing the average daily traffic on these streets, the daily train movements, and length and speed of trains, estimates were made concerning the delay time to motorists and average daily number of vehicles that would be stopped at these crossings.

A grade separation is being planned by Granite City at 19th Street to provide access across Q Tower corridor and out to the newly constructed River Road, or Illinois Route Three. This should also relieve traffic on Niedringhaus Avenue and 20th Street.

One additional candidate for grade separation is Pontoon Road, at which a severe impact exists due to a railroad-highway interface.

The estimated number of stopped vehicles per day at Pontoon Road under alternatives is higher than other crossings in Granite City (1,932 to 2,652 per day) the study notes.

Mayor Paul Schuler of Granite City has cited an additional concern regarding the crossing of the CNW and ICG tracks at Illinois 162, the study notes.

Operations from the ICG Yard frequently block this main highway. Under present plans, much of the trackage from the ICG Yard would be removed and some switching operations would be moved to the consolidated yards.

A thorough analysis of traffic flow patterns, especially in view of the opening of the River Road, will be made prior to future decisions on grade separations.

The TRRA Madison Yard is to play a significant role in the restructuring of the St. Louis terminal operations.

In order to reduce interference with the railroad leads to the Merchants Bridge, new leads to the yard hump in Madison Yard are expected to be constructed on the TRRA property parallel to State Street in Madison.

Operationally, this would mean that full trains up to 10,000 feet in length would be pushed along this corridor at 2 to 3 miles per hour.

Market Street, which is currently impacted by train operations in this corridor, would be cut off for over an hour each time a train is being classified.

Based on a 1976 Illinois manual count, 2,157 vehicles cross these tracks per day. This is relatively few vehicles, but many—approximately 96 semi-tractor trailers and 283 single units trucks—are serving industry on the west side of the tracks and no reasonable alternative exists for access to this area.

If the leads to the classification hump are constructed across Market Street, a grade separation would be required.

Preliminary plans anticipate the construction of an overpass starting at Market Street in Venice, proceeding over the tracks and then intersecting with Madison Avenue and Second Street in Madison.

However, other viable site options would be entertained. Additional trackage would also be needed in the area north of Madison Yard, under the Broadway overpass.

Although the new trackage would be on railroad property, the overpass would have to be modified to provide sufficient clearance for the new railroad traffic.

During modification of the overpass, there would be some disruption of highway traffic, but it would not be severe during construction.

There would be a reduction in noise impact to homes and businesses along State Street due to decreased number of daily through train movements along the Willows Corridor south of WR Tower.

However, this area would be used for leads to the Madison Yards humps and, hence, the net effect of noise in this area might not change.

Increased trackage to be constructed in Madison is not extensive, but is estimated to be about three miles under both alternatives. Therefore, the increase in tax revenues to the city of Madison after restructuring would be approximately $1,000 annually.

Construction of a highway overpass over the tracks paralleling State Street would necessitate the relocation of certain structures, depending on the specific location of the grade separation.

If the overpass were at Market Street and intersecting with Second Street in Madison, businesses in the block bounded by State Street, Market Street, Madison Avenue and Second would have to be relocated.

However, the precise location of the overpass has not been determined to date, and all other reasonable alternatives will be considered.

North Venice is presently faced with access problems similar to Madison at the Market Street crossing of the Willows corridor, south of WR Tower.

Restructuring would require construction of additional humping leads along this corridor east of North Venice.

Although access to this neighborhood is possible on Klein Street under the Merchants Bridge approach, it is not sufficient to maintain effective emergency services or provide access to the industry on the west side of the tracks.

An overpass at Market Street would provide the needed access.

Higher state payments for nursing home care

An increase in the payment rate for skilled and intermediate care nursing homes will become effective when the Illinois Department of Public Aid implements a new method of reimbursement on Jan. 1, 1978.

According to Department of Public Aid Director Arthur F. Quern, the plan will reward nursing facilities participating in the Medicaid program for providing efficient service, while providing strong incentives to contain costs.

Federal legislation was passed which required states to establish systems of reimbursing long-term care facilities on a cost-related basis.

Additional Illinois legislation required the Departments of Public Aid and Public Health to collect cost information from providers. These cost reports were used to develop procedures of reimbursement.

"With submission of annual cost reports required from each facility, valid prospective payment rates can be set. Reimbursement will then be subject to consideration of the average cost of an efficiently-operated facility," Quern said.

In addition, facilities participating in the program are required to retain records to support the cost reports for periodic review. These reports will be desk-audited annually. And on-site audits of all facilities are required during the first three years.

Specific categories taken into account include support costs, nursing costs and capital costs. Support costs (administration, dietary and utility costs) will reflect facility expenditures within a given

Health Service Area (HSA) are the federal health planning regions of the state. A reimbursement level of actual costs up to the 50th percentile will be applicable for all facilities within a given HSA.

Nursing costs (activity programs) will be compensated in an amount corresponding to the actual average nursing care cost plus adjustments for wages and inflation. This amount will vary according to the HSA involved.

Capital costs (rent or ownership costs) will be calculated using one of two methods:

1) Repayment for a facility's allowable expenditures will be computed on a dollar-for-dollar basis subject to a predetermined limit; or

2) The rate will be established on a group basis related to location and a base year.

Also considered are costs for meeting licensure and certification requirements. Rate increases will correspond to rises in service costs.

Copies of the new state plan are available for public review at all public aid offices.

Written comments concerning the effectiveness of the plan may be submitted to: Bureau of Group Care Services, Illinois Department of Public Aid, 301 E. Washington, Springfield, Ill. 62703.

All comments received will be available for review from Jan. 13 through Feb. 14 at the following locations: Illinois Department of Public Aid, 316 2nd St., 1st Fl., Lobby, Springfield, Ill. Illinois Department of Public Aid, 624 S. Michigan Ave., 13th Fl. Lobby, Chicago, Ill.

Venice School Board endorses hiring plan

The Venice Board of Education approved a procedure for evaluating the work of teacher aides, to be incorporated into established board policy and participation in the Unemployment Compensation Control Service, sponsored by the Illinois Association of School Boards, at a cost of $200 annually.

The service includes the retention of a Chicago area firm which provides information on the new unemployment compensation law covering school districts after Jan. 1, 1978.

In other business, the board granted permission to the Venice Concerned Citizens Committee to hold a "Breakfast With Santa" event from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m. Saturday in the Venice High School gymnasium.

Areas of employment will include clerical, custodial and groundskeeping, Supt. Vickers said. Application can be made at the CETA office, he added.

Collinsville breezes by Steelers, 90-54

GRANITE CITY PRESS-RECORD
Mon, Dec. 19, 1977 Page 10

By DOUG IRVIN
for the Press-Record
"Collinsville is multi-talented. We cannot match their talent — no one can," commented Coach Bill Ohlendorf about his team's loss at Collinsville Saturday night, 90-54.
The Collinsville Kahoks showed their diverse talents in the opening seconds of the game.

Brad Gauen from North and John Belobrydyk of Collinsville went up for the opening tip off. Belobrydyk controlled the tip and got the ball to Kevin Stallings. Stallings then passed to Steve Ray, who went up for two points.
The Kahoks hit the basket from all areas as the North defense started to worry. At the end of the first quarter, the scoreboard showed Collinsville leading by 25 points with a score of 25-0.

"We didn't take any extra precaution defensively against the Kahoks," commented Coach Ohlendorf, but the team tried to execute the fundamentals well.
Dennis Page of the Steelers hit four buckets in the second quarter, but Collinsville still showed its power and at the end of the first half the score was still decisively in Collinsville's favor, 60-25.

The third quarter showed that North didn't and won't quit. Rich Briggs of North intercepted the tipoff from Belobrydyk and passed to Russ Chappell, who put the ball in the goal with only ten seconds elapsing in the second half.
One minute later, Gauen stepped from the left baseline and passed to Randy Vandergriff, who in turn passed to Gauen, who scored.

Both teams tallied 13 points in the third quarter, but the big deficit remained.
In the fourth-quarter action, Page went to the board first to bring North within 53 points.
North and Collinsville took turns shooting, with Collinsville scoring one point more than

Warrior defense causes 31 turnovers

Lancers hand South second loss, 59-56

By PETE HAYES
Press-Record Sports Editor

Some people say that the best offense is a good defense. If South Coach Don Deterding believed that old saying after Friday night's 59-56 loss to Belleville East, he hid his feelings well.
His Warriors had just forced the Lancers into 31 turnovers and held down high-scoring 6-8 center Bryan Leonard to a mere 13 points, but couldn't muster enough firepower of their own to win.

"Maybe sometimes we're just destined not to win," said Deterding. "I mean, when your defense causes turnover after turnover, but your offense just can't put the ball in the hoop, that's just about it."
The Warriors, despite causing all of those East turnovers, found themselves trailing most of the game by margins of from one to five points and having to play catch-up basketball.
Belleville East jumped out to a quick 13-4 lead on a basket by Chris Louth with a minute left in the quarter.
BUT THE WARRIORS WENT into their turnover-causing act, forcing the visitors into three straight miscues that directly resulted in South baskets.

Jeff Tretter stole the ball from the Lancers for the Warriors' eighth point of the game which brought them within five, 13-8.
Then, Warrior Barker stole the Belleville East in-bounds pass, but a 25-footer by Greg Feigl fell short.
The next South attempt from the floor wasn't off the mark. Tom Henrich put in a 10-foot jumper after another Lancer turnover to pull the Warriors within three points at 13-10 with just 27 seconds remaining in the period.

With 25 seconds left, Parker was fouled while attempting a steal on the Lancer in-bounds pass. He hit both ends of a one-and-one free throw situation and the Warriors had pulled within a point, 13-12.
ACTUALLY, the Warriors had a chance to take the lead when Feigl stole another Lancer pass with just 10 seconds remaining in the period. But a 20-foot jump shot by Parker was no good.
It was that way for the rest of the game. The Lancers would take a three- or four-point lead, only to see the Warriors inch their way right back into it.
That is, until early in the fourth quarter.
With 5:13 remaining in the game, sophomore Lee Huebner stole an errant Lancer pass and drove all the way in for the layup.
Following two free throws by Belleville East, Mosby hit on a five-foot jumper to pull the Warriors back within three, 40-43.
HENNRICH then stole the Lancers' in-bounds pass, scored on a drive down the middle and the Warriors had suddenly pulled to within one point, 46-45.

Tretter stole another East pass and was fouled by Leonard. He hit nothing but the bottom of the net with both charity tosses and the Warrior's had their first lead of the night, 47-46. It didn't last long.
THE LANCERS jumped right back on top with a pair of free throws by Brad Holley. Then Terry Angle tied it right back up again with a free throw of his own.
Belleville East grabbed another two-point lead on a turn-around jumper from ten feet by Leonard at the 3:28 mark.
The last time South had the lead was at 1:19 showing on the clock. At that point, the Warriors had a three-point advantage, 56-53. Henrich had just stolen a Lancer in-bounds pass and passed off to Huebner, who was fouled.
He hit one of two attempts and had, although he didn't know it, a 25-footer jumper by Louth Warrior point of the evening.
A 25-footer jumper by Louth at 56:55 with 1:03 showing on the clock. He tied it up with the first end of a one-and-one.

The one-and-one situation was caused by Tretter's fifth personal foul. It came at 1:02 mark. Then came Leonard's turn. The man who had been held in check all evening by the Warriors was fouled twice in the final 20 seconds and made four straight free throws to give the Lancers the lead and the victory.

"I thought we did a good job of containing Leonard," said Deterding. "We have a hard-working, good anticipating defense. When we cause this many turnovers by the opposition game after game, we have to be doing something right."
"I'LL TELL YOU, if East and West (Belleville) are the third and fourth best teams in the area like some believe, then we're not too far behind."
South had played West to a one-point decision a week ago. Then Deterding held his thumb and index finger about an inch apart. "We're this far from jelling as a good, solid team."
That was just how far short the Warriors came Friday night.

Cougars sharp in court wars

Two highly different basketball halves were played Saturday night at the Edwardsville High School gym.
In the first half, the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville Cougars barely edged a harassing, defense-minded five from the University of Illinois Chicago Circle, 40-35.
In the second half, the SUE Cougars romped to a 55-40 triumph for Coach Jim Duffey's SUE Cougars and raised their record to 4-0.
It is the best start for the Cougars since their 4-1 takeoff in the 1974-75 season, when they finished with a 18-8 mark.
The high jumping, and flying, Bennie Lewis sent the Cougars' record soaring with a game high 28 points, 18 in the second half.

Right behind the exciting junior, Bennie Lewis, was senior Vince Barnett from Decatur MacArthur with 21 points.
Barnett, at last apparently free of the injuries which have sidelined him frequently the past three years, sank two free throws with 7:15 to go in the first half to push the Cougars ahead by a 22-20 count, and looked as if SUE was on its way again.
Then, with 6:44 in the half, Neil Peabody, the Cougars' 6-9 desecrated outcourt shot from Johnston City, Ill., left the game with his third personal foul. At the same time, Tom Norris of UIUC cut the SUE lead to 40-35 with 1:30 remaining.

The Cougar fans sat back expecting the second half to be a nail biter. But in the second half the Cougar offense was awesome.
A free throw by the Cougar center, Bill Brann, pushed SUE ahead 51-37. With 15:37 to go in the game, the Chikas finally scored their first second-half points, a 15-foot jumper by Norris. The Cougars then reeled off 11 straight points and the game was all but over.
Lewis, an expert outside shot as well as deadly under the basket, entered the game with a 132 average from the floor in three games, and

Warriors win 57-6, run record to 6-0

The Granite City South wrestlers ran their varsity dual meet record to 6-0 Friday night as they smashed visiting Springfield Southeast, 57-6.
The results for South were: 96 pounds—Greg Gardner (S) pinned Tom Clark (1:32), 105—Rocky Lupardus (S) won by forfeit, 112—Scott Clements (S) defeated Stan Clouse (S) by forfeit, 118—Dean Perkins (S) defeated Barry Forshee (S) 15-0, 126—Wally DeShon (S) defeated Carly 19-0, 132—Dean Perkins (S) defeated Dennis Haden 5-0, 138—Sam Peters (S) pinned Eric Robinson (5:15), 145—Darrell Hasty (S) pinned Vince Glauh (1:14), 155—Mike Forshee (S) defeated Brad Bayless 14-7, 167—Bart Gardner (S) was pinned by Brent Felker (SE) (3:08), 185—Mark Lamp (S) won by forfeit, heavyweight—Don King (S) won by forfeit.
The Warrior junior varsity also remained undefeated, pinning (literally) a 6-0 defeat on the visitors. All bouts were decided by pins.
The results were: 96 pounds—Greg Davis (S) pinned Bill Earl

(1:26), 105—Rod Lupardus (S) pinned Jessie Harris (2:24), 112—Randy Lupardus (S) won by forfeit, 118—Jeff Tinsley (S) pinned Henry McDowell (1:06), 126—Phil Beljanski (S) pinned Cornell Tubert (3:35), 132—Brad Peterson (S) pinned Dave Cox (1:40), 138—Geoff Wofford (S) won by forfeit, 145—Kevin Knowland (S) won by forfeit, 155—Drew Clement (S) pinned Howie Ellis (1:28), 167—Rich Knowland (S) won by forfeit, 185—Scott Polson (S) pinned Drake Israel (1:19), heavyweight—Don Zantlow (SE) pinned Bruce Mowhan (S) (2:01).
The Warriors were originally to have met Normandy High from St. Louis Saturday afternoon. However, that meet has been re-scheduled because of the Ritenour (Mo.) wrestling tournament involving Normandy.
That tournament was originally set for two weeks ago, but was postponed until this past weekend because of the icy weather.
The Normandy-South meet will be made up on Jan. 20.

GC North overcomes McCluer strategy

What do you if you have the third-place Missouri high school wrestler on your team, Mike Welch of McCluer North, and he's scheduled to oppose Illinois state champion Chris Whelan, holder of national freestyle mat titles and an awesome performer despite his weight of 119 pounds?
Bringing his team to Granite City High School North on Friday night, the McCluer coach decided to slot Welch at 126 pounds, against Kevin Shemwell. But the strategy backfired when Shemwell rose to the occasion and fought to an 8-8 draw.

Whelan meanwhile pinned Bob Pedorchak of Missouri in one minute and 57 seconds after building up a big point lead. And Coach Walter Whitaker's North matmen prevailed by a decisive 30-10 margin.
Victorious Steelers included Gerald Miller at 98 pounds on a 14-5 decision over Craig Pahlengroff, Bob Kirgan (105 on a 7-0 verdict over Charles Hodges, Brett Smith (112) on a 6-4 win over Steve Howard.

Venice rally runs out of gas in fourth . . .

Flora outduels Red Devils, 82-70

By PETE HAYES

Press-Record Sports Editor
It was an unusual situation in Venice Saturday night. The game between the host Red Devils and the visitors from Southeastern Illinois, Flora, presented an odd case.

Venice came into the game with an 0-2 record while the Wolves were sporting a 3-4 slate. And yet, BOTH coaches were looking for their first wins ever at the helm of their respective clubs.

Ken Perkins had not yet won a game following his taking over the reins of the Devils in mid-September. Larry Kane, meanwhile, hadn't won a game either.

How that Flora had a 3-4 record and its coach was looking for his first win? Yup, Kane, who serves as Flora's athletic director and head football coach, took over the basketball reins last Wednesday following George Toler's resignation because of problems of discipline and of communication with the school board.

The Wolves did play a game Friday night, but were 68-61 losers to Olney, a perennial southern Illinois basketball powerhouse.

KANE WASN'T TO BE DENIED. His team grabbed the lead right from the start and held off a Devil rally in the fourth quarter to cruise to an 82-70 win.

The Red Devils were hotter than black from the floor. They probably felt right at home. Hitting 29 of 58 attempts, they burned the nets for 50 percent. But that wasn't enough.

After staying fairly even with Flora through most of the first half, Venice stayed the way through a good portion of the third period.

That is, until there were four minutes remaining in the quarter. Then the Devils came from a 44-37 deficit to pull within two points (44-42) by scoring five unanswered points.

Included in that scoring outburst was a technical free throw made by Anthony Wise after a technical had been called on the Flora bench.

It wasn't the last technical foul that would be called Saturday night. Flora was to get plenty of chances.

LATE IN THAT THIRD PERIOD, the Wolves scored 10 points on three straight three-point plays. It was almost enough to make sure that Venice wouldn't recover.

Seven of those 10 points were scored by Flora's scrappy point-guard, Harold Martin. The 5-9 senior drove the lane two straight times, made the layups and drew the fouls by the Red Devils. Also missed was a free throw. The other three-pointers was made by the other Flora guard, Jeff Harvey.

"I THOUGHT we could have done a little better job of controlling Martin than we did," said Venice coach Ken Perkins. He's quick . . . real quick. But I think he can be defended if you're willing to stick with it."

Martin wasn't the only thorn in the side of the Red Devils. The entire starting five for the Wolves played in double figures.

"They're a very good team," said Perkins. "I really thought we would have won this game, though. We just can't seem to put a consistent string together . . ."

One thing that may have kept the Devils from taking over the lead late in the game was a series of three straight technical bench fouls called on Venice Assistant Coach Chuck Mosby following a call which he felt was questionable.

"THOSE THREE bench T's hurt us," said Perkins. "We were just starting to get things rolling and I thought we had 'em. I guess that it just sort of took the steam out of us."

"But I'm not blaming anybody. Chuck's a fighter. He works hard and he did what he felt he should have done at the time."

With 1:03 showing on the clock, Venice's Salmond was called for charging. At that, with the Devils trailing 76-68, Mosby let out a yelp . . . three to be exact . . . and was charged with three technical fouls and banished to the Venice locker room.

The Wolves scored their last 12 points on charity tosses.

Flora coach Kane was pleased with the win. "I think there's a lot of talent here at Venice," he said. "If they don't get impatient and if they stay with these guys, they'll have a real strong team by the time the regionals roll around."

"Hey, I'm at 500 now," said Kane. "The team evened its record at 4-4 and I evened mine at 1-1."

Ken Perkins would have loved to have been 1-2 after Saturday night's game.

Trojans win with ease, then by two

The secret of success in high school basketball is to not only wallow relatively easy victims but to somehow survive and win out in closely-contested games.

Madison High School athletes have learned the lesson well, as they proved during the weekend.

Wood River seeds out; Warriors number one

Granite City figures prominently in newly-announced pairings for the Wood River Holiday Invitational Tournament. Both Granite City North and South are participants in this year's basketball tourney.

South's Warriors have been chosen as the number-one seed in the eight-team tourney, which will be conducted on a double-elimination basis.

Wood River is the second seed, Decatur Lakeview is seeded third and Southwestern of Piasa is fourth. GCBS North was not seeded.

The tournament will be conducted on Tuesday and Wednesday, Dec. 27 and 28, with the first round taking up all the activity on the first day. The second round, semifinal and championship games will be played on Wednesday, Dec. 28.

IN THE FIRST ROUND, South will play in the initial game against Clinton (Tenn.) High School at 1 p.m. At 2:30, Decatur Lakeview will meet Rosana.

The North Steelers will get

Coach Larry Graham's Trojans toppled the Pioneers 81-39 at Assumption in East St. Louis Friday night and then fought back from a number of tie scores to prevail 80-66 at St. Anthony's of Effingham Saturday evening.

At St. Anthony's, Madison held quarter leads of 16-14, 38-32 and 58-54 but could never pull away to get breathing room. It was still close, 64-64, in the closing minute until Anthony King jumped from 15 feet away and arched the ball through the hoop for a four-point lead.

Scott Kabbes of the host Bulldogs brought his team to within two points when 15 seconds remained in the contest, and Madison was called for charging in an attempt to add a final field goal as the buzzer sounded.

St. Anthony's Kabbes was awarded a one-and-one free throw opportunity that could have deadlocked the score, but he missed.

Kabbes tallied 23 points and Charles Dust, 17, for St.

Anthony's, while the Bulldogs (now 3-3 for the season) recorded 27 of 60 field goal attempts, 12 of 20 free throws, 35 rebounds, 19 fouls and 28 turnovers.

The Trojans hit a sparkling 28 of 46 from the field. They missed 12 of 27 at the free throw line, captured 27 rebounds, fouled 20 times and committed 15 turnovers.

Scores were Anthony King 19, Ken Stanley 16, Lloyd Williams 12, James Heard and Tim Colston five each, Ron Morris and Eric Stanley four each and Ken Boyd, three points.

Heard suffered a possible shoulder dislocation late in the fourth period, falling after a collision with a referee. In the 61-39 conquest at Assumption, Boyd scored seven, Williams 13, King five, Colston ten, Carlyn Jackson seven, Ken Stanley 11, Morris seven, Eric Stanley four and Ricardo Long, two.

Quarter scores were 15-10, 31-16 and 42-28.

MHS tallied 24 field goals and 13 of 29 free throws on 24 enemy fouls, while Assumption scored 18 goals and three of eight charity tosses on 13 MHS fouls. The Pioneers held 6-5 and 6-4 Trojans but the Trojans were able to overcome a height disadvantage with speed and shooting skill.

Madison now has a second record.

Cougarettes lose to SLU

The Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville women's basketball team traveled to St. Louis Thursday night and found the St. Louis U. Billikens less than cordial as the Cougars dropped a 66-48 decision.

The St. Louis U. bench proved too strong for the Cougars' 10 women contributed to the hosts' scoring effort.

Jane O'Laughlin paced SIUE with 14 points, 12 of which came in the first half. Leading scorers for the Billikens were Jane Schrage, who finished with 13

Klasek with 14 points and the Betz sisters, Betty and Linda, with 11 each.

Southern, trailing 36-26 at halftime, pulled within six points midway through the second half, led mostly by Kathy Going and Brenda (B. J.) Schrage, who finished with 13 and 10 points, respectively. But during that drive, Miss O'Laughlin, the team playmaker, fouled out for the second game in a row.

The Billikens then responded with 14 unanswered points to put the game out of reach. The loss put coach Lori Gyn Stark's SIUE cagers below the 500 mark (1-27) and assured St. Louis U. of a winning (2-1) record before breaking for the Christmas vacation.

Reed first for SIUE in wrestling at Muncie

Tom Reed of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville's varsity wrestling team continued his standout season performance Saturday at Muncie, Ind., by capturing first place in the 118-pound weight class in the Ball State University invitational tournament. Reed, a freshman from West Chicago, Ill. High School, defeated John Gross of SIU at Carbondale, 15-4.

It was the second meet in which Reed had defeated Gross this year. He pinned Gross in the University of Illinois meet the previous week.

In the 177-pound weight class, Al Manning of the host Ball State team defeated the Cougars' Norm Mitchell, 8-2. The Ball State meet drew entries from Ohio University, Indiana State, Terre Haute, Middle Tennessee U., Western Illinois U., Eastern Illinois U., SIUE and the host school.

Overall, SIUE landed one champion, Ohio U. placed one, Eastern Illinois and Ball State each landed three champions, while Indiana State and Middle Tennessee had one each.

"I was disappointed in the main, by our fellows' results," said SIUE coach Larry Kristoff. "The past two weeks of action, apparently took more of a toll than I realized."

Next action for the SIUE wrestlers will be at the annual Midlands invitational tournament, held each year at Northwestern U., Evanston, set for Dec. 21 and 23.

Only five wrestlers from each school are invited. From SIUE, the second half by Mike Waldo, Ervin, 126; Dru Meshe, 150, which is up from his normal 142; Tim Napier, 158, and Bill Castans, 167.

ned on 13 of 21 field goal attempts and also added 13 rebounds and seven assists to his totals.

The slender Barnett grabbed off 13 caroms, but Branz of SIUE topped all rebounders with 15. The Cougars hit on 11 of 14 free throws, including a perfect 4-of-4 in the first half.

For the game, SIUE hit 50 percent of its floor attempts (42 of 84), while UIUC was held to 33 (25 of 77) percent.

Andy Cooper paced the losers with 16 points, but was held in the second half by Mike Waldo, the SIUE junior from Granite City North who played two straight games Dudley has started Waldo.

On Thursday night, Lewis was sharp early and tallied 18 points, when they'll return to the hardwood court wars and compete for the second consecutive year in the annual Lake Shore Cage Classic tournament in Chicago Dec. 28-30.

SIUE with its weekend wins now has a 4-0 season record.

The Cougars will now take a 10-day break until after Christmas, when they'll return to the hardwood court wars and compete for the second consecutive year in the annual Lake Shore Cage Classic tournament in Chicago Dec. 28-30.

Man, wife charged

Lindell D. Cowan, 41, of 3920 Gaslight Walk, Pontoon Beach, was charged with aggravated assault, reckless driving, not having valid registration for his auto and violating a stop sign at Pontoon and Johnson roads after an incident at 4:30 p.m. Saturday. His wife, Angela S. Cowan, 24, was charged with unlawful use of a weapon.

A Madison woman said she was driving on Madison Avenue at 27th Street and a green Pontiac with a dark top pushed her car from the rear, hitting it at least three times. The driver of the green car then held a silver handgun out the window, the woman said. There also was a passenger in the green car, she related. She drove north on Nameoki Road, east on Jili Avenue and turned into Bellemeor Village Shopping Center, stopping at the Bellemeor Shell service station where she notified police.

Before a description of the car could be broadcast to police cars, an officer reported a green Pontiac had just violated the stop sign at Pontoon and Johnson roads and he was chasing it. The auto was stopped at Pontoon and Maryville roads and a .25-caliber automatic pistol was found in the passenger's purse, police said. Mrs. Cowan was released at 7:05 p.m. Saturday on a $100 cash bond and her husband appeared Sunday before

Thieves take $13,500 in frozen fish

A break-in of a refrigerated truck parked in Venice netted the thieves $13,500 in loot — frozen fish. The truck burglary was reported to Venice police at 5:13 p.m. Sunday by Dan Cowgill, Lebanon, Ill., driver of the truck. Cowgill told police the truck had been parked several days at a parking lot on Madison Avenue between Collinsville Avenue and Market Street. The truck is owned by the Yankee Refrigeration Co. of New Jersey. When he went to get the truck, he said, he noticed the truck seal was broken. Upon investigation he found 150 cases of Colla Perch weighing at $93 per case, were missing.

CONDUCT CHARGE

Vincent A. Urban, 21, of Fairmont City, was arrested in the 2000 block of Missouri Avenue at 4:45 a.m. Friday, after he allegedly made calls to a house and went to the address in a taxi looking for a woman who was not there. He was charged with disorderly conduct when he declined to give his full name to officers.

LEONARD L. SHARP

SIUE housing director named

Appointment of Leonard L. "Bodie" Sharp, 35, of Chesterfield, Mo., as director of housing at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville was announced Friday by Dr. R. C. Fritters, vice-president for business affairs. He said the appointment was effective Dec. 15, subject to confirmation by the SIUE Board of Trustees.

Sharp assumes the position which has been filled on an acting basis by Margarette Bohannon since July 1. Miss Bohannon, who previously had served the Housing Office as resident life coordinator, was appointed to the interim position after the resignation of William H. Hall. He had been housing director six years until he accepted a position at Ohio State University.

A native of Arkansas, Sharp has been director of student services and assistant vice-president for student development at St. Louis University and was associated with the university from September 1971 until May of this year.

He was dean of residence life for a year before being named chief administrator for student housing, food services and University Center operations. He resigned in May to complete his doctorate in college student personnel administration at the University of Northern Colorado.

Sharp's previous employment experience included two years as a doctoral fellow with the Department of Housing and eight months as assistant manager of the University Center at the University of Northern Colorado.

He worked three years as assistant superintendent for buildings and grounds and five years as director of a residence hall at Southern Arkansas University. He received his B.B.A. degree from Southern Arkansas University, with a major in industrial management.

Sharp and his wife, Janis Jean, are the parents of two children, Penny and Roger.

Reduce price of food stamps

Under new rules which become effective Jan. 1, food stamp recipients whose winter heating and utility bills increase may pay a reduced price for their stamps.

The purchase price, based on net income after deductions, may be adjusted downward since there is less income available to buy food.

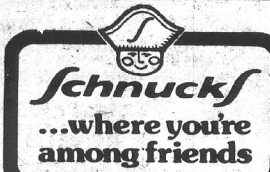

Allowances will be made for utility costs, including heating and cooking fuel, one telephone, electricity, water and sewer service, and trash collection.

Food stamp households will be able to use their most recent utility bills to claim the larger deduction.

Households whose bills increase by $25 or more will have any necessary changes made within 10 days after notifying the Public Aid office. If the increase is less than $25, adjustments will be made in the price of the next regularly issued Authorization to Purchase card.

Under the old rules, only bills that had already been paid were counted. Consequently, some households whose bills increased sharply last winter had to choose between paying for heat and other utilities and paying for food stamps.

Food stamp recipients are to contact their caseworkers to have their cases reviewed and find out if they qualify for the lower purchase price.

Christmas brings out good will—but be wary

Playing on generosity, which is especially prevalent during the Christmas season, an out-of-state man told distressing stories at two business places Thursday and obtained $4 cash at one and $8.70 worth of gasoline from an individual at another.

Both tales apparently were untrue, authorities allege.

Leslie B. Stephens, 36, who listed addresses in Barnhart, Mo., and Phoenix, Ariz., was charged with disorderly conduct when his vehicle was stopped by police at 21st Street and Niedringhaus Avenue at 2:40 p.m. Thursday.

Police first learned of the incidents after a man visited the Day Springs Book Store, 3208 Nameoki Road, at 1 p.m. Thursday.

A man in a blue parka with fur around the hood came into the shop and said he was looking for odd jobs to get money, as his truck had run out of gasoline and he was trying to reach Missouri.

The man also said his wife and their children (triplets) were at a nearby restaurant, where the owner was treating them to a free meal.

An employee gave the man $4 and he left. Shortly afterward, she called the restaurant and learned from the owner he knew nothing about the family. The truck license plate was traced to a Barnhart, Mo., man.

About an hour later, Jerald

Ragan, 61 University Drive, was talking with the owner of Corral Liquors, 3304 Nameoki Road, when a man came in seeking work. He reported being on his way to Missouri from Chicago with his wife, who he said was ill with terminal cancer.

The man said his truck had broken down in Granite City the previous night, that repairs had taken all his funds and that he needed money for gasoline.

Ragan took the man to Granite City Car Wash, 3653 Nameoki Road, and paid $8.70 to have the vehicle filled with gasoline.

The benefactor also was told the Salvation Army the night before had provided a place for the man and his wife to stay.

Ragan became suspicious of the story, checked with the Salvation Army staff, which had no knowledge of the family, and then called police, who halted Stephens' truck and arrested the driver. The vehicle was registered to a relative of Stephens, police learned.

The driver was released at 4 p.m. Thursday on Payment of $35 cash bond.

Limits on snowmobile use in state

By LIEUTENANT
DON HASTINGS
Regional Commander, Region IV

Division of Law Enforcement
Illinois Department of Conservation

We are seeing an increasing amount of snowmobiles being used in our area and we find that most are novice owners who are unaware of the laws governing their operation.

The Illinois Department of Conservation is charged with the registration of snowmobiles as well as the enforcement of laws regarding safe operation.

Here are a few of the most important regulations:

1. Owners must immediately apply for a registration number upon purchase and, when it is received, affix the registration number to both sides of the cowl. Cost is $6 for two years. The registration decal must be attached behind the numbers.
2. Snowmobiles must have a headlight and taillight displayed at all times, and at least 16 square inches of a reflective material attached to each side of the cowl.
3. They must have adequate brakes in good repair.
4. It is illegal to operate a snowmobile on any operating railroad right-of-way, or on any private property without consent of the owner.
5. It is illegal to operate a snowmobile on a state highway right-of-way, except to cross the highway at 90 degrees, to get from one piece of property to another.
6. Snowmobiles may be operated on county and township highways so long as they operate on the shoulder, at least 15 feet from the roadway, in the same direction as traffic.

Additional rules and information can be obtained from a local conservation police officer, or by contacting the Regional Office at 34 W. Broadway, Alton. The phone number is 462-1181.

It is important that the public be aware that snowmobiles are regulated, and that they should seek such information prior to purchase and use.

Display tells the story of Christmas

An award-winning display, "The Story of Christmas," at Lake View Memorial Gardens, Highway 150, opened Saturday. The display will be lighted each evening from 5 to 10 through Jan. 2.

The outdoor pageantry attempts to retain a natural setting with subdued, indirect lighting. A Nativity scene is presented.

Carolers at the Little Chapel of the Gardens offer Christmas carols.

Another part of the Christmas story is depicted by a panoramic painting 40 feet long and 16 feet high, showing King Herod's court as he vows to destroy the Christ Child and orders the destruction of all two-year-old male Israelite children. In the distance can be seen the pyramids and Joseph taking Mary and the child to safety in Egypt.

A closing benediction entrusts that the blessings of Christmas be with all for the entire year. Viewers dim their lights to maintain the natural lighting and roll down their windows to enjoy the chimes.

Christmas program at Wilson

Two complete performances of "Christmas Around the World" will be presented
Tuesday evening by students at Wilson Elementary School.
Parents and friends of all children attending Wilson School are invited to view either of the performances.

Homenade cookies and other refreshments will be served following both segments, according to Mrs. Linda McGee, Wilson PVA president.

The initial presentation will take place from 6 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, with students performing from the morning kindergarten class and the first, second and fourth grade classes.

Between 8 p.m. and 9:30 p.m.
the same day, a repeat performance will be given by pupils in the afternoon kindergarten class and the third,
fifth and sixth graders.
Susan Doty and Sandra Bowler, teachers, and Mary Kay Rogers, music instructor, are in charge of the programs.
All report the students have "worked long and hard in preparation of the event."

Wilson pupils are in for a special treat at 1:30 p.m.
Wednesday, when Santa Claus pays a visit to the school, Mrs.
McGee said.

Santa to visit by appointment

The Nu Zeta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority are sponsoring a "Visit With Santa" project designed for area residents to call and make an appointment with Santa to visit children in their homes, on Dec.
22, 23 or 24.

According to the club officers the program was planned as a fund raising project with the proceeds to be used to help area needy families this Christmas season. Cost of the visit will be $7, it was announced.

Parents who participate in the event are advised to wrap a gift with the name of the child on the package and leave it on the porch so Santa can deliver the gift in person.

For more information and to make appointments those interested may call Mrs. Margie
Williams at 452-5553, Mrs.
Leona Mack at 877-6588 or chairman, introduced the guest speaker Ronald Pennell who delivered a series of readings centered around the theme

"Christmas Thoughts."

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Baker were presented with a floral centerpiece as a symbolic gesture of appreciation to all past presidents of the organization and their wives.
Mr. Baker is the oldest past president in terms of tenure of the local group, it was noted.

The program closed with the singing of Christmas carols by the Mixed Advanced Chorus of Granite City High School South, under the direction of Mrs.
Mary Bright.

Beloved Enemy film at Bethesda Temple

A film entitled "Beloved Enemy", winner of the National Evangelical Film Foundation award as the best evangelistic film of the year, will be shown at Bethesda Temple, 22nd and State streets, at 7:30 p.m.
Thursday, Dec. 22, according to the Rev. Charles Browning, pastor.

Sweeping from the ski slopes of Northern Michigan to guerrilla infested jungles of the tropics, beloved enemy tells the dramatic story of a young space-age scientist who is rejected by the girl he loves because of his unbelief.
Embarassed, he sets out to disprove the deity of Christ through a careful and honest investigation of the accuracy of the gospels and the massive evidence for the physical resurrection of Jesus Christ.

Convinced of the truth of the Bible, Mark, played by Tony Mochus, follows Lynn, played by Flo Price, a well-known Christian musician, to the jungles of Latin America where both are trapped in a political upheaval. Their escape from a communist concentration camp and heading flight to escape the bullets of the guerrillas provides many moments of excitement and suspense.

News notes

New traffic lights on Maryville Road are being placed in operation at the Parkview and Wilson elementary school pupil crossings.

John P. McCammon Jr., Laclede Steel Co. vice-president for industrial relations and public affairs and assistant secretary, has been elected as the new chairman of the Southwestern Illinois Industrial Association board of directors.

The U.S. plans to alert 68,000 schools, contractors and architects about potential injury from cracked or damaged mercury vapor lamps.

No major impact is being noted in this area from a national farm strike that began last week. A "more militant" phase of the strike, which relates to farm produce sales and equipment purchases, is being discussed by some farmers, who cite a severe financial squeeze.

Lieutenant Governor Dave O'Neal called a press conference at Springfield Thursday, voicing the governor's shock at a federal decision to drop Columbia-Waterloo from among projects eligible for U.S. funds. Arven H. Saunders, executive director of the St. Louis Metropolitan Area Council Authority, called the Washington decision "consistent with the unfortunate political practices that seem to be controlling this matter."

The Bi-State Development Agency may be forced to halt or sharply curtail bus service in late January due to a federal decision delaying a $100,000 subsidy pending a study of alleged civil rights violations.

Federal Bureau of Investigation agents raided the Finish Line Express office in East St. Louis Friday night. A similar office in Granite City had been closed by local police, and a Venice office closed on instructions from Madison County state's attorney. The FBI seized records in East St. Louis and alleged that the messenger service also was being operated in an illegal manner involving handling of horse race bets.

The governor's revenue study commission on legalized gambling unanimously endorsed Thursday the proposed creation of an off-track horse race betting system.

Congress adjourned for the year Thursday after approving the biggest peacetime tax hike, a $27 billion boost in Social Security taxes.

The Madison County Board at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday will consider rehiring department heads, act on a request for appraisals to secure additional parking space and consider new wage agreements for county employees in Locals 799 and 520C.

The Illinois Health Facilities Planning Board on Friday ordered St. Joseph Hospital, Alton, to stop installation of a $600,000 body scanner device, unless a permit is issued for it.

Initial sheriff candidacy papers filed last week by Donald E. Vaughn failed to list his sales of drugs to the county jail.

Granite City's public library will be closed Dec. 24, 25 and Dec. 31-Jan. 1 due to the holidays.

Illinois legislators' special session Friday ended without giving the Supreme Court a new election board plan. The House twice failed to resolve the deadlock over the method of appointing board members.

'Dirty' rain due to high gusting winds

High gusting winds Friday night and early Saturday were responsible for those dirty windows in cars and homes, according to the U.S. Weather Bureau.

Rain which accompanied the winds dropped a heavy dust whipped into the air by the winds, leaving "mud spots" on windows throughout the metropolitan area.

Jim Henry, technical engineer of the Granite City Air Pollution Control Board, said he had called the weather bureau to determine the source of the dirt and was told that dirt whipped by high winds in this area was intensified by a "dirty atmosphere" resulting from heavy windstorms in Kansas and Oklahoma.

A cold wave moving through the area caused winds gusting to 35 miles per hour. Dust and dirt swirling in the air was then picked up by the light rain that fell overnight, the weather bureau said.

ORDINANCE NO. 3452
AN ORDINANCE RELATING TO SNOW EMERGENCIES ON THE STREETS OF GRANITE CITY, ILLINOIS.
BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF GRANITE CITY, ILLINOIS, as follows:

SECTION 1: Snow Emergency—Definitions. The following definitions shall apply in the interpretation and enforcement of this Ordinance:

(1) SNOW COORDINATOR—The Snow Coordinator is the Superintendent of Streets, and he may cause such declaration to be further announced in newspapers of general circulation when feasible. Each announcement, shall describe the action taken by the Snow Coordinator, including the time it became or will become effective, and shall specify the streets affected.

(2) STREET—Means the entire width between the boundary lines of every way publicly maintained when any part thereof is open to use by the public for the purpose of vehicular traffic.

(3) SNOW EMERGENCY ROUTES—Are those streets marked as such on the map attached hereto and made a part hereof.

(4) SNOW TIRES—Are any tires mounted on drive wheels of motor vehicles which are especially designed to give effective traction on snow, mud, or ice covered streets by means of extra heavy duty treads with specifically high traction tread patterns.

(5) TIRE CHAINS—Are any metal chains mounted on drive wheels of motor vehicles which cross the tread of each such tire laterally in at least three (3) different places.

SECTION 2: PARKING ON SNOW EMERGENCY ROUTES:

(a) Whenever the Snow Coordinator finds, on the basis of falling snow, sleet, or freezing rain, or on the basis of a forecast by the United States Weather Bureau or other weather service of snow, sleet, or freezing rain, that weather conditions will make it necessary that motor vehicle traffic be restricted or that parking on city streets be prohibited or restricted for snow plowing and other purposes, the Snow Coordinator shall put into effect a parking prohibition on parts of or all snow emergency routes as necessary by declaring it in a manner prescribed in this Ordinance.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (a) hereof, a parking prohibition shall automatically go into effect on any part of any snow emergency route on which there is a covering of snow, sleet, or ice or of one inch or more for one hour as measured by the United States Weather Bureau or as directed by the Snow Coordinator.

(c) Once in effect, a parking prohibition in this Section shall remain in effect until terminated by announcement of the Snow Coordinator in accordance with this Ordinance.

SECTION 3: CONDITION OF MOTOR VEHICLES OPERATED ON SNOW EMERGENCY ROUTES:

(a) No person operating a motor vehicle on a snow emergency route on which there is a covering of snow, sleet, or ice shall allow such vehicle to become stalled wholly or partly because the drive wheels thereof are not equipped with effective tire chains or snow tires.

(b) No person operating a motor vehicle on a part of a snow emergency route on which there is a covering of snow, sleet or ice or on which there is a parking prohibition in effect, shall allow such vehicle to become stalled because the motor fuel supply is exhausted or the battery has become inoperative.

SECTION 4: STALLED VEHICLE ON SNOW EMERGENCY ROUTE:

Whenever a vehicle becomes stalled for any reason, whether or not in violation of this ordinance, or any part of a snow emergency route on which there is a covering of snow, sleet, or ice or on which there is a parking prohibition in effect, the person operating such vehicle shall take immediate action to have the vehicle towed or pushed off the roadway of such snow emergency route onto the first cross street which is not a snow emergency route. No person shall abandon or leave his vehicle in the roadway of a snow emergency route regardless of whether he is indicated by raising the hood or otherwise, that the vehicle is stalled.

Teachers, athletics are rated highest at schools in Madison

The teaching staff and the athletic program are the most outstanding aspects of the Madison schools, as noted by the respondents of the community on a survey questionnaire sent out by the Community Relations Committee of Madison Unit District 12.

Seventy-eight percent of the community felt that the system had good report cards and half felt the reason for education was self-satisfaction.

Senior skip day was regarded somewhat as a tradition by half of the people, even though state aid was lost at that time.

"Family life education should be taught," was the decision by 90 percent of the respondents, starting at the primary level and carried on through the grades.

The committee found that 90 percent of the community was concerned about school-community pride and parent involvement.

In response to the expressed concern, the committee has chosen "school-community pride" as the target area for its next project.

Members of the committee are: the district's planner-specialist for equal educational opportunity, Dolores Folkerts; Dr. Booker Gardner, consultant from the Wisconsin Research and Development Center.

University of Wisconsin; professional staff members, Porter Cawby, John Harrison and Charles McCaskill; and community representatives, Mary Anna Kaminski, Georgia Stavar, Louise Lewis, Dorothy Buford, Donna Woodard, Ethel Palm and Lois Wilson.

MR. AND MRS. LOUIS A. PRAZMA. Their wedding was solemnized at St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church. Formerly Miss Diana L. Holmes, the bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Holmes, 2912 Washington Ave.

Miss Diana Holmes and Louis Prazma are wed

Pyramid style bouquets of white carnations and burning tapers on the altar of St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church provided the setting for the wedding on Nov. 4 of Miss Diana L. Holmes and Louis A. Prazma.

Father Edward Groesch performed the double ring ceremony at 7 p.m. Organist Ken Perkins accompanied Mrs. Ken Perkins as she sang, "Sunrise, Sunset," "The Wedding Prayer" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Holmes, 2912 Washington Ave. The groom is a son of Mrs. Louis T. Prazma, 3017 Willow Ave., and the late Louis T. Prazma.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore an A-line style organza gown fashioned with an Empire bodice enhanced with a high neckline and long tapered sleeves of Chantilly lace.

The long skirt was accented with a double lace edged flounce at the hemline which was draped to the back creating an apron effect and cascading into a chapel train.

A Juliet headpiece of seed pearls and lace held in place her fingertip veil. She carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations and red roses with white streamers.

Attending the bride were Miss Karen Perkins as maid of honor, and Miss Diane Gaines, Miss Barbara Koishor and Mrs. Don River, a sister of the groom, as bridesmaids.

She selected burgundy gowns in an A-line design with Empire bodices and chiffon capes edged in satin ribbon.

Each attendant held a bouquet of pink and white carnations tied with pink streamers and wore a cluster of matching blossoms in their hair.

Angela Blason, the groom's niece, served as the flower girl and was dressed in a white lace frock accented with a burgundy bow. She also wore sprigs of baby's breath in her hair, and carried a basket of rose petals.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Holmes chose a formal mint green chiffon gown fashioned with a matching cape. She wore a corsage of mint green carnations and baby's breath.

Mrs. Prazma, mother of the groom, selected a long blue chiffon Empire gown with long sleeves. Her corsage was composed of blue carnations and baby's breath.

A reception was held immediately following the service at the Crosland Hall. The groom's mother hosted a rehearsal dinner at Perotti's Restaurant in Collinsville. Miss Vickie Pfeiffer attended the guest book.

The groom chose John Serich as best man, Sam Bautech, a cousin of the groom, Ed Prazma and Frank Holmes, brothers of the couple, were groomsmen.

Serving as ushers were Ken and John Prazma, brothers of the groom.

Both young people graduated in 1974 from Granite City High School South. The bride will graduate this month from Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, with a bachelor of science in Earth Science. She is employed in the Graduate School at SIUE and is a member of the Illinois Earth Science Association.

The groom is employed as a construction worker for the Bollmachers Union 363.

Out of town guests were from St. Louis, Carbondale, Texas, Indiana, Edwardsville and Roxana.

Burning tapers in branched candelabra festooned with sprigs of greenery provided the setting for the 7 p.m. double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. James Kerley.

Preceding the service a program of selected classical religious music was played by Vicki and Dave Marshall on an organ and piano. Melody Leitch sang "The Lord's Prayer" and Kathy Glasco sang, "Charity."

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore her mother's wedding gown fashioned in antique ivory satin. The full length dress featured a yoke of bridal illusion edged with a wide ruffle of Venice lace, a fitted midriff and long tapered sleeves.

A full gathered skirt extended into a cathedral length train. She chose an Alencon lace headpiece trimmed in pearls with an ivory fingertip veil of illusion and she held a colonial bouquet of white roses in intermingled with baby's breath.

Miss Mary Klyasheff, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and bridesmaids included Mrs. Susan Magerdichian, another sister of the bride, and Miss Gail Addison, the groom's sister.

They were gown in aqua Qiana floor length dresses designed with molded bodices, round necklines with attached hoods which were edged in white maribou. The pleated skirts were set into the fitted waistbands.

Each attendant carried a white muff accented with a cluster of snowflake mums, tinted aqua, and eucalyptus leaves.

Ted Rosenberger attended the groom as best man. Francis Addison, a brother of the groom, and Ray Lettwich were groomsmen.

Seating the guests were Jim Kerley, Peter Schimpf, Tony Cochran and Steve Leonard.

The newly married couple received guests at reception held in the church fellowship hall, immediately after the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Addison, parents of the groom, hosted the rehearsal dinner in their home.

Following a wedding trip to San Francisco, Calif., the newlyweds will reside in Carbondale.

The bride graduated this year from Southern Illinois University at Carbondale, with degrees in public relations, speech education and a minor in journalism.

Her husband is attending SIUC and will graduate in May with a B.S. degree in Religious Studies with a minor in music.

Biby cites criminology training and experience

Robert "Bob" Biby, Troy, has announced his candidacy for sheriff of Madison County.

Biby is a Republican. He joined the Illinois Bureau of Investigation in 1970 and was transferred from Springfield to Belleville two years later.

Biby, 33, has been reassigned to the Division of Support Services in the Illinois Department of Law Enforcement and plan to take a leave of absence sometime after the March primary to campaign for sheriff.

He believes the biggest problem existing in the Madison County Sheriff's Department lies with the leadership. "If elected, I would have a professional, effective, efficient office free of scandal. It might take a while, but I'd do everything possible to get this done," he said.

Biby envisions the ideal sheriff as one who is professional, educated, with the right experience and ability. He believes morale could be improved in the department through a system in which deputies were allowed to pick the shift most suitable to them. He believes politics should be removed from the sheriff's office, he says, while noting that the sheriff himself must be something of a politician in order to be elected.

"There are some good officers in the Madison County Sheriff's Department and some are not," Biby said.

He would establish a system, if elected sheriff, to remove persons not performing their jobs.

Biby would work to get the 911 emergency system in operation for citizen emergency calls and would advocate use of Policefax, equipment which transmits fingerprints over phone lines to a center in Joliet for quick identification.

He believes a shortage of manpower is one of a number of problems in the sheriff's department currently.

As a special agent with the Illinois Bureau of Investigation, Biby has experience in general criminal investigation, organized crime and narcotics investigation, and in undercover work.

Biby is married and has two daughters. He graduated from SIUE in 1966 and taught school in Bethalto and Alton before joining the IBI. He later received his master's degree at SIUE — in sociology, concentrated in the field of criminology.

Man charged with striking officer

A man reportedly causing trouble and saying he wanted to go to jail at 7 p.m. Thursday in St. Louis, 2422 Nameoki Road, told officers the same thing, but then allegedly struck one officer in the chest and had to be subdued and handcuffed.

William J. Brown, 36, of 2232 Bryan Ave., was charged with aggravated battery and placed in a cell, where he was found unconscious at 8 p.m. Thursday. Brown was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital for treatment and returned to police headquarters at 9:35 p.m. Thursday.

Uncertainty undermines businessmen's confidence

By RICHARD L. LESSHER

President U.S. Chamber of Commerce The Carter Administration has good reason to be worried about businessmen's confidence. Pessimism reigns in 75 percent of the nation's executive suites, according to a business confidence survey jointly conducted by the National Chamber and the Gallup Organization.

One of the biggest reasons for the gloom is that over half of the respondents expect the government to do a "poor job" of fighting inflation and unemployment, while only two percent expect government to do a "good job."

Why should anybody care how "confident" business people are? Because when business decision-makers fear trouble ahead, it can become a self-fulfilling prophecy.

Job-creating investment gets postponed. The many transactions that would take place in the course of building new factories, houses or "widgets" do not take place.

It all translates into a depressed level of economic activity — into stagnation, rather than growth.

There is a wealth of interesting detail in the survey, which I will save for the future.

For now, I think it is more important to dig into this confidence problem: Why does the Carter Administration make business nervous?

Here is how I see it, based on what I hear from business people around the country:

So far, this Administration's bark has been consistently worse than its bite. But "confidence" being two parts tangible and three parts psychological, it isn't necessary for the President to bite anybody to cause economic trouble.

The President and his key aides have a way of making statements and gestures that confuse the business community and cause great concern. Often, nothing comes of the unsettling proposals, but by that time much of the damage has already been done.

Some concrete examples: Tax "reform." Nothing the President has done or proposed to do has upset business people as much as the early Administration tax reform ideas.

To managers who are already seeing their capital steadily eaten away by the combination of inflation and present tax rules, the prospect of taxing capital gains as ordinary income looks like the end of the hellgame.

On top of that, the President's much-publicized attacks on the "three martini" lunch seem to signal that tax reform is being shaped more by political than economic considerations.

This impression is reinforced by his proposal to make employers pay a higher share of the Social Security tax than employees.

Lately, Administration spokesmen have been backing away from complicated tax reform in favor of simple tax reduction. That's a move which would please business people and help the economy.

But the Administration blunts the psychologically beneficial impact of this change by proclaiming that the controversial reforms will come later, which leaves executives fearfully waiting for the other shoe to fall.

Regulatory reform.

The President came to office on a promise of making the federal government less powerful and less intrusive. But with the possible exception of the Occupational Safety and Health Administration, there has been more talk than action toward streamlining the bureaucracy.

In fact, there has been significant movement in the opposite direction. There was an attempt, fortunately unsuccessful, to add a consumer protection agency to all of the other consumer protection activities in Washington.

And there is Mr. Carter's complex, inefficient and costly "energy" program, which is still hung up in Congress.

Labor relations. The President gave tacit support to the common situs picketing bill, which was defeated anyway — a defeat that I feel was beneficial to consumers and business. He pushed, unsuccessfully, the Cargo Preference Act, a costly subsidy to maritime unions.

He is still trying hard to secure enactment of package of labor law changes. These changes could be to the detriment of businesses, consumers and workers.

Inflation and the budget. The President still speaks of balancing the budget, which would help to reduce inflation. However, he still entertains talk of costly new government programs, such as public service jobs and national health insurance.

This talk calls into question the sincerity of his interest in budget-balancing.

In summary:

When you put it all together, you see an Administration whose sincere good intentions could be doomed to failure by vacillation due to a lack of clear priorities. And inconsistency is the most difficult condition for business to cope with.

Women's rights are stressed by McPike

State Rep. Jim McPike, who is seeking re-election, regards himself as a women's rights advocate, he is saying in campaign talks.

"The struggle for women's rights is not a modern day phenomenon. The fight has been waged for centuries, even in America."

"In 1650, women were burned as witches in New England. In 1850, women's suffrage was not a reality. The causes today have taken different dimensions, but the desired result is still the same — women want equality," McPike comments.

"Although many problems are best addressed in Washington, D.C., much can still be done at the state level. When the legislative session ended in July, Representative Susan Gattis (R-Chicago), chairperson of the Commission on the Status of Women, thanked me for my 'staunch support for women's issues.' Much, however, remains to be done."

"The Displaced Homemakers Act and the Commission of the Status of Women need adequate funding. Standards must be adopted for the establishment and maintenance of equitable programs in athletics for men and women in state universities."

"Legislation must be passed to facilitate collection of child support payments. We need to establish centers for family violence victims while mandating police crisis intervention and follow-up of all domestic violence calls."

"We must fund day care centers for preschool children and for the elderly, so that women who wish to work are able to."

"Statutes enabling each spouse to select his or her own domicile and his or her own name must be enacted."

"Insurance rates and coverage in Illinois must be examined for sex discrimination."

"We should establish a women's information clearing house and monitor the position of women's advocates in the executive branch to insure adequate staffing."

"Rape laws must be tightened so that victims will not be reluctant to testify and convictions will be easier to obtain."

"Once we admit that discrimination against women exists, the solutions to many problems will appear more reachable."

"I have spoken on these issues before various social organizations, in committee hearings, and on the House floor, and I will continue to speak out for women's rights if re-elected," McPike said.

"The first step in securing equality for women in Illinois is passage of the Equal Rights Amendment. The amendment states, 'Equality of rights under the law shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of sex.'"

"This gives all citizens the right to be treated as individuals and not discriminated against because of sex."

"The due process and equal protection clauses of the 14th Amendment have not guaranteed these rights to women. In fact, over the last 100 years, our courts at various times have ruled that despite the amendment, States can prohibit women lawyers, jurors, wrestlers and bartenders."

"Clearly, women have fought harder for passage of the ERA than men because they have been discriminated against in many more cases."

"Their fight for suffrage took over 80 years to win and, since 1920, they have been working toward equality under the law for all citizens."

"The latest polls indicate that a clear majority of women support passage of the amendment and an overwhelming majority of men support it."

"Broadly speaking, it will establish a constitutional principle on the question of sex discrimination, but specifically it will have immediate effect in a number of areas."

"It will end discriminatory Social Security benefits and pensions and end discriminatory parole and sentencing practices between men and women convicted of the same crime."

"It will end discrimination against men in awarding custody of children in divorce cases."

"It will provide equal pay for equal work to government employees. In short, it will reaffirm the principle upon which this nation was founded — equality of rights for all."

"Passage of the ERA is the number one philosophical priority in the Illinois legislature. I have stated this on radio, before various social organizations and in newspapers, and I intend to continue working for its adoption."

"As a state representative in Springfield, I voted for the ERA in 1977 and, if re-elected, will continue to do so."

If drinking, don't drive, Veizer warns

"The Christmas season can be treacherous — just plain treacherous," Granite City Police Chief Ronald J. Veizer, who is cooperating with area drug abuse officials to emphasize holiday drinking problems, said today.

"Year around, over half of the traffic fatalities nationwide involve alcohol," he said. "Top that off with added holiday parties. Add heavy holiday traffic, extra pedestrian activity and last-minute shopping. Mix all these with winter's tricky weather, and you come up with many potentially treacherous situations," he added.

This year, according to Chief Veizer, the International Association of Chiefs of Police is stepping up its annual campaign to reduce holiday accidents and their consequences.

"We're accelerating traffic enforcement, alerting emergency medical personnel, appealing to the public — everything we can do. But the real responsibility still rests with each citizen," Veizer said, noting that safe holiday tips include:

If you've been drinking, let someone else drive.

If you give a party, serve food with the drinks, discourage pre-drinking.

Stop serving drinks early before the party's over.

If a guest does overdo, arrange for a ride with someone else. You got him drunk, you get him home without incident.

As a final warning, Veizer observed, "The holidays are no time for abandoning basic safety rules... or to forget your obligations as a good host."

Anti-skyjacker bill sponsored by Price

Congressman Melvin Price of this district is making a strong effort to further discourage terrorism.

"Every month for the last 13 months, there have been more than 150 bomb threats against U.S. aircraft and airports," he said Friday.

"Over the last 10 years, there have been over 450 hijackings or attempts. More than a thousand persons have died from explosives planted in aircraft."

"It's time we try to do something about this kind of terrorism."

Cong. Price has co-sponsored proposed legislation that would take action against "skyjackers."

The legislation, entitled the Anti-Terrorist Act of 1977, would prohibit any direct or indirect air travel between the United States and nations aiding terrorist activities.

Any munitions trade with these nations would be cut off. Penalties against skyjacking and threats of skyjacking would be strengthened, and dangerous airports would be identified for American travelers.

"Under the bill, a cabinet-level council would be established to identify nations aiding terrorists," Rep. Price said.

"Rather than establishing a new bureaucracy, two existing federal offices under the Departments of State and Justice would be combined to administer penalties under the act and implement provisions of international agreements against skyjacking and terrorism."

"Under travel cannot continue under the threats terrorists pose," the congressman concludes. "Less than half of all skyjackers are even convicted, and more than a third never even have been apprehended."

"We simply can't allow this jeopardy to the safety of air passengers, and I think this legislation can go a long way toward a solution."

He will be speaking on "Family Law" and the new "Illinois Marriage and Divorce Act" — an act affecting marriage and the dissolution of marriage, and amending and repealing previous laws and parts of laws.

"Under the new act, a husband and wife can now enter into a prenuptial agreement, and more than a third never even have been apprehended."

Convenient site for state public aid office in this area

Word that the Madison County Department of Public Aid headquarters will open Jan. 3 at the Nameoki Village Shopping Center reflects sound thinking on the part of state and county level officials of the Illinois state government.

The Quad-City area is ideally located to serve the southern portion of Madison County, since it is by far the largest concentration of population in that half of the county.

Specific areas to be served here will include this community and Glen Carbon, Troy, St. Jacob, Maryville, Highland, Collinsville and Marine.

Ted Funkhouser is the Madison County administrator. Other parts of the county will be served at existing Edwardsville offices, where Mrs. Norma Shaffer will be in charge.

Maryville Road extension—a major traffic improvement

Although it has not been wholly completed, the extension of Maryville Road now links Poston Road and Highway 203 with Highway 162 (extension of Edwardsville Road and East 23rd Street).

Even though some intersections are not yet open, and many finishing touches remain to be carried out, it already is clear that the new four-lane thoroughfare will be an outstanding asset.

For those travelling on the eastern edge of Granite City and wishing to head southward or westward, the route will bypass railroad crossings and alleviate some of the through traffic congesting Nameoki Road.

Stoplights currently are being installed, and it will be important to install street lighting as soon as possible. These and other safety considerations will deserve high priority, since some auto and traffic hazards unavoidably are associated with the widening and extension of what is likely to become a major artery.

Beware of a repeat of 'the great grain robbery' of 1972

Press-Record Washington Bureau—If U.S. military intelligence is on par with economic information concerning Russia, we may be in real danger.

In 1972, the Soviets were able to hide the fact that an alleged bumper grain crop was in fact a bust.

Anticipating no purchases of grain by Russia, the price of United States grain was depressed and great amounts of cereal were purchased at the expense of our own producers.

Irate farmers here called the result "The great Russian grain robbery." Although assured that it could not happen again, the growers were not entirely placated and have not forgotten it.

Now, fears are growing that the Soviets have again pulled off the same trick. There are reports that millions of tons of grain have been purchased at depressed prices.

Government officials were taken by surprise when the Soviet president announced Nov. 2 that the Russian harvest would amount to only 194 million metric tons. This is 10 percent below the 215 million tons estimated by the CIA and the Agriculture Department and 19 million tons below the Russian goal.

The predictions of a big Russian harvest plus a heavy surplus kept prices of U.S. grains greatly depressed. The Soviet announcement took our officials by complete surprise.

These surprises were not supposed to happen. After the 1972 incident, the Soviet Union and the United States signed an agreement designed to prevent secret purchases of American grain.

The agreement calls for on-the-scene inspection of the major Russian grain producing areas by agricultural agency officials. Soviet crops are monitored via satellites by the CIA. The procedures were set up to keep the U.S. advised of Russian crop prospects.

When the 1972 purchases were divulged, grain prices soared to record highs. Consumers paid through the nose and grain farmers felt they had been cheated, as they had already sold on a depressed market.

Our government officials have expressed belief that surreptitious grain purchases have been made through third parties who are not required to report their trading.

It is speculated that enough grain has been purchased this way to offset much of the Soviet short-fall in production. If all this proves true, how much stock can we take home in any agreement made with the Soviets?

In the light of complete failure of the CIA to gain correct intelligence, shall we predict a new agency is too preoccupied with looking into the affairs of U.S. citizens? That charge has been made many times and a development of this magnitude certainly adds substance to the allegation.

Mexican attitude toward illegal drug traffic is justified

Globe-Democrat comment—There is another side—one that will likely surprise most people—to the prisoner exchange between the United States and Mexico. The actual situation was so unexpected that it even caught the American in charge of the transfer off guard.

"I had no idea what we were dealing with," said Michael Abbell, special agent of the U.S. Department of Justice, who is spearheading the swap.

The impression that most of the imprisoned Americans primarily were young vacationers who had become unfair targets for harsh treatment stemming from minor violations is widespread. But it also is a fallacy that can be called the Mexican misconception.

"These are serious offenders," Abbell explained in Mexico City before the exchange went into operation. He concedes there have been instances of minor offenses, but Abbell insists "the Mexican government is being wrongly charged with prosecuting minor violations harshly."

He argues that "many of these people would have gotten stiffer sentences in the United States. I'll tell you one thing," Abbell said. "These are the poor little Joe College types caught with one joint of grass in their pockets."

A survey of the prisoners interviewed by Justice Department personnel supports Abbell. The average age is 31 and the median age is 28, which is higher than in U.S. prisons. Some are more than 50 years old.

About half of the Americans charged with marijuana possession actually were transporting 100 kilos or more. That amount of grass adds up to about 220 pounds and has a street value of $1 million or more.

Other statistics also provide a disturbing picture of the chasm between fact and fiction. For example, 40 percent of the narcotics violations involve cocaine; a third of the prisoners were caught with about 4½ pounds or more.

Abbell reported that nearly two-thirds of the prisoners surveyed had one prior arrest and a half of them had two or more. Furthermore, about 10 percent are wanted on outstanding warrants in the U.S.

With the above incriminating statistics staring them in the face, few prisoners protested their innocence during interviews at Santa Marta Prison in Mexico City. Their biggest complaint centered around the fact that they had not been granted an American trial that might have resulted in probation.

Now that the figures have exposed the unwholesome characteristic of many of the prisoners, the outpouring of sympathy for the transference is likely to be tempered.

Individuals who transport vast quantities of marijuana or cocaine aren't carrying it around solely for their own consumption. They can be described only as drug traffickers and deserving of not the slightest bit of sympathy.

Despicable as their actions are, one still cannot condone the abuses suffered by some of the prisoners who supported their allegations of beatings by displaying scars.

Mistreatment is a sad fact of life, and it has been uncovered at times in some U.S. penal institutions also. Abused most of all, however, are the addicts whose lives have been wrecked by drug traffickers.

Many transferencees do not seem to have a leg to stand on in pleading their case now. Still they wail and cry—the same as they did in prison.

One former osteopath from New York serving time in the Mexico City prison for cocaine smuggling commented, "It will be good riddance to all that whining and complaining about how they got busted. Mommy's little babies got busted for trying to make a fast $2,000 for selling dope and got caught."

If the serious offenders don't mend their ways, many people may wish the prisoners had stayed where they were.

"I want more jobs, lower prices and no inflation."

New hope for solving food crisis

Illinois Christmas gift to world?

By GORDON BILLINGSLEY

CHAMPAIGN — In a computerized laboratory on the University of Illinois campus, a new kind of agriculture is brewing.

It doesn't use soil, plants or fertilizers. It embraces a new concept in food production, in which just the food-producing part of the plant—not even a whole cell—is harnessed to produce a complex, computer-monitored system.

Plant physiologist Constantin Rebeiz, a pioneer of the concept, calls it "cell-free" agriculture.

He says his work may have far-reaching consequences for the world food shortage.

And because of the nature of the product of his laboratory process, it may also someday be used to manufacture a variety of petroleum products such as drugs and plastics and gasoline.

The model for this farm-in-the-lab is a fast-sized mechanism filled with a green liquid. The liquid, chlorophyll, is used by plants to convert sunlight into food.

Rebeiz wants to harvest that food, bypassing the rest of the plant.

By replacing the plant with a laboratory, Rebeiz says, food production can be made more efficient because no energy is "wasted" growing roots, leaves, stems or other plant parts.

"We will be able to do just one thing," he said, "make food."

Rebeiz makes a point of distinguishing his work from that of more conventional laboratory farmers, such as those who work with hydroponics—the science of growing whole plants in a water culture.

Rebeiz's system uses only a tiny part of the plant cell called the chloroplast.

The chloroplasts are the main ingredient in chlorophyll, the substance that makes plants appear green. It also is responsible for plants' ability to produce their own food through a process called photosynthesis.

Although photosynthesis requires only carbon dioxide, water and sunshine in the presence of chlorophyll, the reaction in which food is produced is complex. A large part of Rebeiz's laboratory work revolves around understanding this reaction.

Rebeiz's team synthesized the chloroplast in 1969, and they fabricated the membrane in which the chloroplast lives in 1973.

Relying on that experience, they designed a machine, called a photosynthetic reactor in which the chloroplasts can live and produce food. They are constantly monitored through a computer hookup.

A major barrier to successfully following the chloroplast over an extended period is understanding why the chloroplasts die, Rebeiz said. The chloroplast needs the rest of the cell to survive, "he said. "It is not an independent entity."

"We are just beginning to understand this relationship. We can keep them (chloroplasts) alive for about one hour now. Five hours would be fantastic."

"We are shooting for 24 hours. That would be a major breakthrough. Someday maybe days or weeks will be possible."

On his way to understanding the relationship of the chloroplast to the cell, Rebeiz has uncovered a series of chemical reactions never observed in the laboratory.

These reactions, seven in all, are some of the most basic reactions in the plant kingdom, he said.

And there is no gaiety at all in this: "Whoever has lived long enough to find out what life is, knows how deep a debt of gratitude we owe to Adam, the first great benefactor of our race. He brought death to the world."

Those excerpts are from a Twain novel seldom mentioned, "Pudd'nhead Wilson," which has a setting similar to "Tom Sawyer" and "Huckleberry Finn," but little other relationship to the work.

The book was first copyrighted in 1883, after Twain had suffered much personal tragedy, and his frequently lauded "Pudd'nhead Wilson's Calendar" observations provided an early warning of the dark and bitter selections from his autobiography that Rebeiz said.

Mark Twain --philosopher without title

By L. S. CLEMENS

For reasons readers might guess, a man who wrote under the name of Mark Twain is one of my favorite authors.

He and his works are assessed, generally favorably, in the World Book encyclopedia by Edward Wagneknecht, a professor who has spent his years studying and writing about American authors.

Wagneknecht, though, makes two assessments of Twain in his World Book sketch that can only be categorized as patronizing. And both are arguable.

"Clemens," he writes (Mark Twain's real name was Samuel Langhorne Clemens should there be any present who don't know that) "was never a philosopher, as he liked to consider himself, because he lacked systematic training."

In other words, no degree, no title as far as the good Prof. Wagneknecht is concerned.

He also said, "Clemens considered himself a pessimist, but this is not quite accurate." Wagneknecht seems to offer as proof of this view, "But even when he was most bitter, Clemens still wrote as a humorist."

Perhaps, but I find little inclination to smile in this offering by Twain: "There is no character, however good and fine, but it can be destroyed by ridicule; however poor and witless."

"We are just beginning to understand this relationship. We can keep them (chloroplasts) alive for about one hour now. Five hours would be fantastic."

"We are shooting for 24 hours. That would be a major breakthrough. Someday maybe days or weeks will be possible."

On his way to understanding the relationship of the chloroplast to the cell, Rebeiz has uncovered a series of chemical reactions never observed in the laboratory.

These reactions, seven in all, are some of the most basic reactions in the plant kingdom, he said.

And there is no gaiety at all in this: "Whoever has lived long enough to find out what life is, knows how deep a debt of gratitude we owe to Adam, the first great benefactor of our race. He brought death to the world."

Those excerpts are from a Twain novel seldom mentioned, "Pudd'nhead Wilson," which has a setting similar to "Tom Sawyer" and "Huckleberry Finn," but little other relationship to the work.

The book was first copyrighted in 1883, after Twain had suffered much personal tragedy, and his frequently lauded "Pudd'nhead Wilson's Calendar" observations provided an early warning of the dark and bitter selections from his autobiography that Rebeiz said.

published until 1940. ("Mark Twain in Expiration.")

And there is also this one, which has no real significant message other than to indicate the scope of the author's mind:

"The true southern watermelon is a bean apart, and not to be mentioned with commoner things. It is chief of this world's luxuries, king by the grace of God over all fruits of the earth."

"When one has tasted it, he knows what the angels eat. It was not a southern watermelon that Eve took; we know it because she reported."

The drift toward despair, though, was not yet complete when Twain sent "Pudd'nhead Wilson" to the publishers. It includes one of his most quoted observations, "Man is the only animal that blushes, or needs to."

At the other extreme, but in the chuckle category, is "When I reflect upon the number of disagreeable people who I know have gone to a better world, I am moved to lead a different life."

And I suspect this one is entirely autobiographical: "There are three infallible ways of pleasing an author, and the three form a rising scale of compliment:

"1. to tell him you have read one of his books; 2. to tell him you have read all of his books; 3. to ask him to read the manuscript of his forthcoming book."

"No, I admit you to his respect; No, 2 admits you to his admiration; No, 3 carries you clear into his heart."

Pudd'nhead Wilson can't be closed without noting another of its most quoted passages: "If you pick up a starving dog and make him prosperous, he will not bite you. This is the principal difference between dog and man."

Still, here's a last one for the closing moment of your day: "Let us endeavor so to live that when we come to die even the undertaker will be sorry."

Not a pessimist? Not a philosopher? Shame on you, Prof. Wagneknecht.

Your '78 lifestyle may be hazardous to your health

By KITTY BEHOF

SPRINGFIELD — More than 15 drinks of either wine, beer or hard liquor each week, coupled with never wearing a seatbelt and frequently feeling depressed can land you right in the hazardous zone.

Speaking, watching more than four hours of television a day and not being familiar with basic first-aid procedures can make your lifestyle risky.

Or, being a few pounds overweight, letting tension or anxiety interfere with daily activities and riding a motorcycle may also give you a risky lifestyle rating.

None of the above habits seem to be related.

Still, they all fall into a category analyzed by a lifestyle quiz being distributed by an insurance group wanting people to take immediate action to improve their health habits.

The quiz, called the lifestyle profile, was put together by the Blue Cross and Blue Shield organization in Chicago.

The quiz measures the amount of exercise performed, the number of drugs and tobacco consumed, nutrition and awareness of road and water safety as well as mental health.

Questions such as, do you smoke marijuana, how many miles do you travel in a car each year and do you practice breast self-examination are listed with multiple-choice answers such as seldom, occasionally and frequently.

The score indicates whether the examinee is leading an excellent, good, risky or hazardous lifestyle. Each response gets one, three or five points.

The higher the score, the poorer the lifestyle, according to the quiz results.

Those who rate in the hazardous zone are told they either have little personal knowledge of good health habits or are choosing to ignore them.

Richard O'Connell, vice president of public affairs for Blue Cross and Blue Shield, said the test is only a means to an end.

"People have been told for a long time now, 'Don't smoke. Don't do this. Don't do that.' What we want to do is make them realize they are responsible for their own health care and for their own lives," O'Connell said.

"We have to get away from the Marcus Welby syndrome where people go to their physicians to get patched up no matter what type of lifestyle they lead. We have to heighten their health awareness," he said.

"Of course, we don't expect to change their lifestyles overnight. I gradually got religion," he said, explaining he started jogging several miles a day after realizing he was out of shape.

O'Connell said there are two benefits from the health awareness program.

The short term benefit is reducing time lost by employers when employees become ill. The long term gain is stabilizing rising costs in health insurance premiums.

Distributing the lifestyle quiz is only part of the overall health consciousness-raising program, however.

A van equipped as an information and test center will begin traveling across the state in January to administer tests that will measure blood pressure and hypertension and detect breast cancer.

Holiday performances of 'Nutcracker' ballet

E. T. A. Hoffman's tale begins with Dr. Silberhaus and his wife entertaining at a Christmas party.... The children enter and are delighted by the lighting of the tree.

From this point on, the real world is left behind, and a journey begins into the magical Kingdom of Sweets and the Land of Ice and Snow—the Nutcracker, his army of toy soldiers, the sugar plum fairy and her cavalier come to life as snowflakes, and flowers wait their way through Tchaikovsky's holiday ballet.

Assistant Conductor Gerhardt Zimmermann leads the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra, joined by the St. Louis Civic Ballet, Stanley Herbert, artistic director, in four performances of this holiday favorite at Powell Symphony Hall, spectacularly decorated for the holiday season.

Performances of the "Nutcracker," now an annual event at Powell, are Wednesday evening, Dec. 28, at 7:30; Thursday evening, Dec. 29, at 7:30; and Friday afternoon and evening, Dec. 30, at 2 and 7:30. In the seven seasons since its first performance, the concert has attracted widely-known guest artists. Choreographer Stanley Herbert will again dance the role of Herr Drosselmeyer, the toymaker, and a husband and wife team, formerly of the Bejart Ballet, Daryl Gray and Lynn Glauber, will perform the roles of the sugar plum fairy and her cavalier.

This production of the "Nutcracker" is unique; the orchestra is placed behind the dancers but, with the scenery and the aura evoked by the ballet and its 68 dancers, is barely seen.

Tchaikovsky's Christmas classic was first performed in St. Petersburg, Russia, in 1892. It was not performed in Western Europe until Sadler's Wells Ballet staged it in 1934; it appeared in New York in 1940.

Tickets for these performances are still available through the Powell Symphony Hall box office (314-534-1700) or at any single ticket outlet.

Promotion for Craig Soehnlin

Craig Alan Soehnlin, U.S. Marine Corps, has been meritoriously promoted to his present rank of lance corporal after establishing a new school record at the Marine Corps Communication School at 29 Palms, Calif.

The serviceman currently is home, spending a 30-day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry R. Soehnlin, 2020 Grafield Ave.

Lance Cpl. Soehnlin attained a scholastic average of 98.5 in breaking the previous record at the school.

A 1976 graduate of Granite City High School South, he attended Washington University, St. Louis, for one year. He enlisted Jan. 6, 1977, in the Marine Corps, under the "delayed" training program, and started boot camp training last May 16.

Upon completion, Lance Cpl. Soehnlin was assigned as recruiter's assistant to Gunnery Sergeant Ed Estok at the Marine Corps recruiting office, 1210 Niedringhaus Ave., for a 30-day period before attending school at 29 Palms.

The serviceman will report for a new duty assignment in January at Quantico, Va.

The board approved a request of Richard Sues, 3200 Willow Ave., for a variance to build a garage 18 feet from the side property line on a corner lot facing Edgewood Avenue. Also approved was a request by Mrs. Mary Volm, 2420

PRESS-RECORD CLASSIFIED ADS GET RESULTS

Kilarney Ave., for a variance to permit construction of a carport five feet from the side property lines.

Both cases will be referred to the City Council with a recommendation for approval. The December-meeting of the City Plan Commission was postponed until next month due to lack of a quorum. One case pending a hearing will be considered during the January meeting.

Lock doors and provide lighting to discourage burglars—Bertagnolli

"The most expensive lock in the world won't help if it is left open," Trile, but true, observes Captain Albert J. Bertagnolli, Illinois State Police district commander at Maryville. The captain's observation came as he looked over a list of deficiencies noted by troopers during rural security checks. Two major faults have been revealed. First, and foremost, is that doors and windows are being left unlocked and, in some cases, actually left open. The second is a lack of lighting. Troopers on patrol conduct security checks on an irregular basis at business establishments, government buildings and private residences in rural areas. "Since most burglaries are committed by amateurs and opportunists who concentrate on the unprotected, you can help minimize the temptations," the captain comments.

Bertagnolli gives these suggestions:

1. Increase the time needed to gain entry by installing adequate locks, lights, alarms and other devices that will delay or deter the burglar.
2. Keep records of special numbers of merchandise, equipment or possessions.
3. Keep night lights on.
4. Have safes, easily visible from the outside, well illuminated and well anchored.

"The holiday period is the time of year when business and residential burglaries increase. Let the Illinois State Police assist you."

"During the first four months of the Rural Security Program, 4,163 checks have been documented and 101 deficiencies detected."

"Two hundred rural businesses are taking advantage of this service and have their emergency phone numbers listed with the state police in Maryville," Capt. Bertagnolli says.

"A gentle reminder to rural residents before the harsh reality of a break-in, if you are going on a holiday trip, you can request that the Illinois State Police check your premises while you are away."

"For additional information, or to report a crime, call the Illinois State Police in Maryville, collect at 345-1212."

Authors hospital financial article

An article evaluating hospital capital expenditures in relation to future benefits of the outlay, has been written by St. Elizabeth Hospital Assistant Controller Jerry Bolandis and published in the December issue of "Hospital Financial Management."

"This system, one we use here (St. Elizabeth's), forces hospitals to think through initial capital outlays instead of acting in a 'need now' (manner), which is one of the public's general criticisms," Bolandis explained.

"Net Present Value—a better way to evaluate capital expenditures" was composed as a project paper for the Southern Illinois chapter of Hospital Financial Management and then was submitted to the national organization for publication.

"Hospital Financial Management" has a membership circulation of 40,000 in hospitals around the country. Bolandis, who holds a master's degree in business administration, is working toward a master's degree in management systems at Southern Illinois University.

JERRY BOLANDIS

He is serving as a graduate assistant in the Management Problems Laboratory there. In January, Bolandis will begin teaching in the MHA program at St. Louis University. He has been an associate at St. Elizabeth Hospital for five years.

Hearing aid firm here outlet for new type battery

Tri-City Hearing Aid Service, 1142 Rhodes St., Madison, has been designated as the local sales outlet for a new hearing aid battery that lasts twice as long as other hearing aid batteries on the market, according to Andrew W. Davis, operator. As a result, hearing aid wearers will need to change batteries only half as often as previously required, and due to its steady source of power, the hearing aid wearer need not continually adjust the volume, Davis said.

The new battery is available in the three most popular sizes: 13, 41 and 675 and will power 90 percent of all hearing aids, including the all-in-ear aids, eyeglass and behind-the-ear aids, he noted.

The Activair battery is sold in a specially-designed package that seals the battery holes with adhesive tape, preventing air from entering the battery to begin the electro-chemical reaction resulting in life several times longer than that of other batteries. The package concept prevents the batteries from being shorted out in a purse or pocket, Davis added.

Snodgrass-Zotti nuptials at St. John Lutheran

The wedding of Miss Roselyn Zotti, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Zotti, 4130 Braden Ave., and William A. Snodgrass, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Snodgrass, 526 S. Douglas, Belleville, was solemnized on Nov. 20 at St. John Lutheran Church, 2001 St. Clair Ave.

The Rev. Samuel Boda officiated at the 6:30 p.m. candlelight ceremony before an altar banked with bouquets of various blossoms.

Wedding music included The Lord's Prayer, "Sunrise, Sunset" and "You Light Up My Life."

Escorted to the altar by her father, the former Miss Zotti chose an ivory chiffon Empire style gown accented with silk Venise floral motifs, etched with pearls, on the bodice and neckline.

The long full sleeves were cuffed with matching lace which was repeated on the hemline of the softly gathered skirt and chapel train.

She wore a lace cap to secure a fingertip veil and she held a bouquet of carnations, rose buds, winter wheat and baby's breath.

Honor attendant was Carolyn Hannah and the bridesmaids included Mrs. Elaine DeShazer and Yvonne Zotti, both sisters of the bride.

They were gowned alike in a spice colored Giana knit full length dresses designed with long sleeves, Empire waists and high gathered necklines. Rhonda DeShazer, a niece of the bride, was the flower girl. She wore a long gold crepe frock created with a high rise waist and full skirt, trimmed with ecru lace, and a ruffled bodice.

The groom was attended by Mike Garrett. Groomsmen and ushers included Rick Schewe, Danny Snodgrass, a brother of the groom, Bill Jakich and Dave Braunaugh.

Guests were received by the newly married couple at a reception held at the Polish Hall. Cindy Lanford presided over the guest book.

The rehearsal dinner was served at the Round Table Restaurant, Collinsville.

Divorce law reform—better protection for the children

By MIKE KIENZLER

SPRINGFIELD — Whatever your view of Illinois' new divorce law, one thing's for sure: a song titled "D-I-S-S-O-L-U-T-I-O-N" never would put Tammy Wynette high on the country-western record charts.

The new statute, the first comprehensive reform of marriage and divorce laws in Illinois since 1874, went into effect Oct. 1.

Some of the changes are purely cosmetic: for instance, divorce now officially is termed "dissolution," alimony has become "maintenance," and marriages no longer are annulled, they are ruled "invalid."

Despite the General Assembly's best efforts, no one really expects very many people to tell their spouses, "I want a dissolution." Whether other provisions of the new law will have much effect in the vast majority of divorces is still a matter for debate.

"Divorce law is set up to handle the exceptional case," says Sangamon State University professor Walt Johnson. "But 95 per cent of all divorces really don't go before a judge for a decision. The issues are settled between the husband and wife, privately."

On the other hand, Associate Circuit Judge Eugene Duban, in charge of divorce proceedings in Sangamon County, argues better protection for children in divorce cases, if nothing else, makes the law worthwhile.

Changes in the new law include:

— Judges decide all divorce trials; jury trials are abolished.

— One party to a divorce still has to charge the other with doing something to cause a marital break-up; the law doesn't provide "no-fault" divorce. But divorce petitions now have to state only the grounds for divorce, such as "mental cruelty." The gory details no longer have to be spelled out when filing for divorce, although they still have to be proven in court.

— Marital property is defined as anything acquired by either spouse during the marriage — with some exceptions, such as inheritances — and it is divided in a divorce according to each spouse's needs and according to how much each contributed to acquiring the property. Judges are specifically ordered to consider "the contribution of a spouse as a homemaker."

Previously, only property on which both the husband and wife held title was considered jointly owned.

The property guidelines already have been challenged by a retired Chicago millionaire, who argues they are unconstitutional.

— Judges specifically cannot consider marital misconduct in dividing property, awarding alimony or, unless the misconduct affects a child, in awarding custody of children.

— As in the old law, alimony ends when the person receiving it remarries. But the new statute adds that the obligation to pay maintenance also ends if the recipient lives with someone without being married.

— Children are given the right to representation by their own attorneys, and judges can seek professional advice and order investigations in child custody proceedings, as well as keep custody hearings and records private. Parents also can't challenge a custody decision for two years unless there is evidence the child's welfare is seriously endangered by the original judgment.

— Marriage provisions in the law include a ban on any marriage under age 16, even with parental consent, and a new three-day waiting period before a marriage license is taken effect.

While the property and alimony provisions may cause the most legal wrangling as the new law is tested in court, they probably won't affect the vast majority of divorces. (Joseph Henley, the Chicagoan who is challenging the law, is one of the exceptions, but then he has $10 million to worry about.)

"For the greatest portion of people who get a divorce, money is not an issue of such magnitude that they're going to spend $5,000 in lawyer's fees," Johnson says. "Anyway, the new law is mainly a codification of procedures already in use. Judges have already adopted a policy that's pretty much what the new law says."

The law will have good effects in some areas, Johnson believes, such as the three-day waiting period before marriage and by not requiring the basis for divorce grounds to be included in petitions.

Over 50 per cent of all divorces are among people who got married in their teens," he says. "But states that have adopted waiting periods have found that if teen-agers wait three to four days, they often don't get married. You're going to get a decline in the number of marriages that have a low probability of succeeding."

Not having all the allegations spelled out in a divorce petition also will mean people won't get angry all over again every time they see their divorce papers, Johnson says.

But, he adds, "One real danger is that the new law is going to be seen as real reform. There's got to be a realization on the part of lawmakers that divorce is more than getting a judge to issue a decree. Making the process of getting a divorce easier is not going to remove the bitterness."

off as given custodial workers.

The action was taken on a motion by Chester L. McManaway who explained that there never has been a definite policy on this and many of the secretarial personnel never knew what days during the year they would be allowed to take off.

The board voted that all 10-month office personnel will work the same days, regardless of the school or office to which they are assigned.

On a motion by Sam Dymas, the board voted to pay for the chicken being served Thursday during a Madison High School soccer award dinner.

A brief discussion was held on increasing security measures at Madison High School because of recent thefts.
